

2009 Battle in the Pitt

EXPOSURE ARTICLE

14U Quarter-Final - NYC Vipers (NY) vs LI Renegades (NY) -

The NYC Vipers struck hard in this Quarter-Final game by defeating the LI Renegades and advanced to the Semi-Finals.

14U Quarter-Final - Connecticut Elite vs LI Lightning (NY) -

CT Elite had a tough one in this match up against the LI Lightning but were able to put forth a strong effort and defeated the Lightning 63-53. CT Elite had 4 players in double figures and were lead by #0 Charles 17 pts, #3 Garnich 16 pts, #23 Garrett 15 pts and #15 Dzurenda 12 pts. The LI Lightning were lead by #4 Mannix 10 pts and #3 McCartland 8 pts.

11U Championship Game - Team Young Boys (CT) vs Mountain Ball (PA) -

Team Young Boys put forth a strong defensive effort and a well balanced offensive attack. All their efforts helped them cruise through this Championship game. Team Young Boys were lead by #10 Butler 18 pts, #14 Pettway 13 pts, #15 Fisher and #3 Williams with 10 pts each. Mountain Ball received most of its scoring from #23 Wiggins with 17 pts.

15U Quarter-Final – Higher Ground Warriors (PA) vs Indoor Action (MA)-

HGW took off right from the opening tip-off and never looked back. HGW defeated Indoor Action and advanced to the Semis. HGW was lead by #24 Johnson 17 pts, #15 Nwaniemkeia 13 pts and #3 Artist 11 pts. Indoor Action was lead by #24 Zalenski with 16 pts.

15U Quarter-Final – New Jersey Panthers (NJ) vs Supreme Basketball (CT) -

The Panthers threw it in high gear in this Quarter-final game against Supreme Basketball and scored a lot of points, fast. With their fast pace action, it enabled the Panthers to advance to the Semis. The Panthers were lead by #5 Kotoulas 14 pts, #2 Bemby 11 pts and #0 Dorval 10 pts. Supreme Basketball was lead by #15 TJ with 15 pts.

13U Semi-Final - East Coast Elite (CT) vs New Jersey Panthers (NJ) -

The East Coast Elite coasted in this semi-final game against the NJ Panthers and advanced to the Championship game. East Coast Elite was lead by #12 Shane 18 pts and #13 Graeme 10 pts. The NJ Panthers were lead by #50 with 20 pts and #10 with 10 pts.

13U Semi-Final - New Haven Blazers (CT) vs Mountain Basketball (PA) -

The New Haven Blazers set the nets on fire with their well balanced offensive attack and scorched Mountain Basketball to advance to the Championship Game.

17U Semi-Final - Connecticut Elite vs CT Mavericks-

The CT Elite squad jumped out to an early lead and maintained it for a while but the CT Mavericks got hot late in the second half and made a good comeback. The Mavericks effort fell a little short as the CT Elite team was able to close this one out and move on to the Championship Game.

17U Semi-Final - New Jersey Panthers (NJ) vs CT Supreme (CT) -

The HOT hands of the NJ Panthers helped put this one away early. The Panthers had four players in double figures and were lead by #30 Geisser 20 pts, #15 DeMors 10 pts, #31 Deal and #33 Hayes with 11 pts each. CT Supreme was lead by #11 Scott 10 pts, #32 Harris and #33 Henry with 12 pts each.

12U Championship Game – Westchester Hoopers (NY) over Bristol Ballers (CT) -

It was the Hoopsters strong defensive effort that gave them the win in this Championship game. Hoopsters were lead by #1 Murphy 15 pts, #23 Passanante 14 pts and #10 Platek 12 pts. The Bristol Ballers were lead by #12 Taylor with 16 pts.

13U Championship Game - East Coast Elite (CT) vs New Haven Blazers (CT) -

A game in which Championship games are made of. This was a must see game with two very good teams matched up against each other. It was East Coast Elite with a one point victory over the rival NH Blazers. East Coast Elite was lead by #12 Shane 15 pts, #24 Dion 12 pts and #22 Jessiah 10 pts. The NH Blazers were lead by #34 Robinson 18 pts, #21 Moore 15 pts and #1 McClendon 10 pts.

14U Championship Game - Indoor Action (MA) vs CT Elite-Dzurenda

Indoor Action came out and took care of business right away. They were a little too strong for CT Elite to handle. Indoor Action was lead by #34 O'Connell 18 pts. #22 Sulda with 17 pts and #40 Baronas with 10 pts. The CT Elite was lead by #20 LaPorta with 8 pts.

15U Championship Game – New Jersey Panthers (NJ) over Higher Ground Warriors (PA) -

The Panthers were not playing around in this one. They moved the ball well on offense and played good defense. The Panthers took a big lead and held onto it to win this contest. The Panthers were lead by #0 Isiah 13 pts, #12 Esam 12 pts and #5 Nikko with 11 pts. HGW was lead by #23 Powell with 11 pts.

16U Championship Game - Connecticut Elite 15's over CT Elite-Rogers-

In a battle between two very good CT Elite teams, we had a good one on our hands with both teams wanting this Championship game and the bragging rights that go along with it. It was CT Elite-Lovett who pulled out a tough one to gain those rights. CT Elite-Lovett was lead by #32 Holmes 12 pts, #12 McPherson and #22 Bajda with 10 pts each. CT Elite-Cherron was lead by #20 with 13 pts and #2 with 9 pts.

17U Championship Game Connecticut Elite over New Jersey Panthers- This was a good one between two very good teams with a lot of talent on them. CT Elite utilized its talent very well and simply played some good basketball. CT Elite was able to out-shine the NJ Panthers by winning this championship game 54-42. CT Elite was lead by the HOT hands of #12 Jason Perrier 19 pts and #14 Greg Langston 20 pts. The Panthers was lead by #13 O'Brien with 9 pts.