

Elite Sports Recruiting Report
February 15, 2009

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES: President's Day Elite Invitational – Boys

Bridgeport, CT –

7th/8th Grade Division

In the Championship Game the New York Gauchos came out fired up against the Connecticut Valley Basketball Club. Valley stayed in the game for 34 of the 40 minutes, falling behind by more and more in the final 6 minutes...with the Gauchos gaining more confidence and looking to put the game away the Valley squad looked like they had no energy left. The Gauchos beat the Valley by 14 points. The Gauchos put up 90 points against Valley winning 90-76. The Gauchos were led by Moorer with 24 points, Giles with 20 points, Smith with 18 points, and Hamer with 16 points. Valley was led by Luster with 19 points, Pomroy with 14 points, and Cunningham with 13 points. Other contributors for Valley were King with 12 points, Connor with 10 points, and Fishkind with 8 points.

7th/8th Grade Champions – New York Gauchos

Champions – New York Gauchos

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES: President's Day Elite Invitational – Boys

5th Grade Division

In the Championship Game the Riverside Hawks beat Shelton Travel in a very exciting 2 point game. Riverside who finished as a second seed fought through the playoffs and carried that momentum into the Championship game against a very strong and talented Shelton Travel team. (No roster provided by the Hawks). Shelton was led by #34 with 6 points and #21 with 4 points.

5th Grade Division Champions – Riverside Hawks

Champions – Riverside Hawks (New York)