

Day 1: President's Day Elite Invitational – Boys

Trumbull, CT – In the first boys' game of the day, the Riverside Hawks from New York turned out to be too much for Wilton Travel winning in a very convincing manner.

The Connecticut Valley Basketball Club lost a hard fought game to the Gauchos from the Bronx, New York. Valley Basketball did a great job shooting the ball and rebounding on both ends of the floor, but the Gauchos had too much energy and team speed down the stretch and won a two-point game. The Gauchos were carried by Hammer's 24 points. Other standouts for the Gauchos were Howe with 11 points, Moorer and Giles with 6 points, and Pender, Smith, and Shottenfield each with 4 points. Valley Basketball was led by Connor and Luster, both with 19 points. Other standouts for Valley were Pomroy with 8 points and King with 7 points.

Connecticut Valley Basketball Club

New York Gauchos

The Gauchos took that momentum into the game against Wilton Travel by going up big early and staying up. The Gauchos won the game by 13 points over Wilton Travel. The Gauchos were led by Yona with 14 points and Hammer and Moorer with 12 points. Other standouts for the Gauchos were Howe with 10 points and Giles with 6 points. Wilton Travel was led by Wilbur's 14 points.

Wilton Travel (CT)