

Day 1: President's Day Elite Invitational – Girls

Trumbull, CT – In the first game of the President's Day Elite Invitational, there was a hard fought game in the girls 5th/6th grade division between Newtown Travel and Trumbull Heat. Trumbull Heat was victorious over Newtown Travel by 6 points. Trumbull Heat was lead by Bike with 6 points and Bayak with 4 points. Other standouts for Trumbull were Ryan, Linden, and Murray who all finished with 2 points each. Newtown Travel was led by Wilcox. Other standouts for Newtown were Rudini and Tucci with 2 points each.

In a battle of speed, strength, and athleticism the Springfield Ladyballers from MA took out the Future from New Britain, CT. The Ladyballers were lead by Belanger and Hicks who both finished in double digits with 10 points apiece. Other standouts for the ladyballers included Walker with 6 points, Martin & Anarado with 4 points each, and Wallace & Bessette with 2 points each. The Future were led the deep sharp shooter Snider, who hit two 3-pointers and Nolan who finished with a team high 10 points. Other standouts were Sola with 5 points and McDough with 4 points.

The Future (CT)

Springfield Ladyballers (MA)

Lee from MA defeated Wayne Panthers in their first game by 10 points. Lee was led by Young with 13 points and Cook with 8 points. Other standouts for Lee were Gaul, Biasin, and Dooley who each had 6 points. The Wayne Panthers were led by Reidel with 8 points, Dreiesse with 7 points and Gould with 6 points. Other standouts for the Panthers were Easse with 4 points, Carrilo with 4 points, and Dulhagen with 3 points.

Wayne Panthers (NJ)

The Middlebury Mustangs defeated Ridgefield Travel by 4 points in a very close game this afternoon. Middlebury was led by Malaspina with 10 points and Perrotti with 13 points. Other standouts for the Mustangs included Dwyer with 5 points and McCasland with 2 points. Ridgefield had even scoring across the board with Searfoss with 8 points, Ziskind with 5 points, Denis with 4 points, Von Recklinghausen with 3 points, and Hastings & Corry with 2 points each.

Ridgefield Travel (CT)

Middlebury Mustangs (CT)

The Ladyballers second game of the day was not as easy as their first game victory, losing to Shelton Spirit by 8 points. The Shelton Spirit was led by Tirella with 9 points and Canotti with 8 points. Other standouts for the Spirit are Drayton with 5 points and Stone with 3 points. The Ladyballers were led by Sanchez with 5 points and Belanger, Bessette, and Alvarado all with 4 points each.

Springfield Ladyballers (MA)