The adidas Phenom Camp under classman standouts were Bernard Brantley (Stratford HS – 2013), Kahlil Dukes (Capital Prep – 2013), Kadian Hall (University HS – 2013), Frank Massey (St. Joseph HS – 2013), Michael Griggs (University HS – 2013), Denzel Moscova (St. Joseph HS – 2013), Jerrell Smith (University HS – 2013), Dennis Hinds (Harding HS – 2013), and Adam Samuel (Stratford HS – 2013).

Bernard Brantley was lights out hitting 6 of 9 three point attempts in the first showcase game. The 6'2 SG shot the ball well off the drill in transition and off screens. Brantley finished ran the floor and finished in transition.

Kahlil Dukes impressed coaches with his speed and quickness. The 5'11 combo guard blew by defenders on his way to the basket finishing with several layups with the foul or finishing with a floater. Dukes shot the ball well hitting from the perimeter consistently.

Kadian Hall played aggressive shooting the ball from the perimeter with defenders out on him. The 6'2 SG scored in bunches in transition and shot the ball consistently from beyond the arc in both games.

Frank Massey played well in transition moving the ball quickly for easy scores.

Michael Griggs (no pic) played well on both ends of the floor blocking shots and altering shots on one end and finishing from 15 in on the other end. The 6'4 SF showed soft hands and a consistent mid-range jump shot.

Denzel Moscova (no pic) showed off his speed and athleticism driving to the basket and finishing around the rim. The 6'1 G had good court vision and found open teammates.

Jerrell Smith (no pic) impressed coaches with his explosiveness driving to the basket and his athleticism. The 5'9 PG blew by defenders and finished strong.

Dennis Hinds (no pic) was strong underneath the basket getting rebounds and put backs. The 6'2 F did a lot of the little things like box out, defend, and hustle.

Adam Samuel (no pic) showed off good ball handling skills as he scored in an array of ways. The 6'2 G finished in transition, shot the ball well from the perimeter, and went by defenders to finish at the basket.
