

NEW HEIGHTS NYC FALLS SHORT TO CONNECTICUT'S WESCON FILLIES

Fairfield, CT - New Height's 14U National Team had a tremendous performance at the 6th annual Best of the Fall tournament at Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, CT. The New York squad opened up the tournament with a 1 point win over the fundamentally sound All Vermont Attack coached by Mike Wells. The second game was a blow out over the younger Triple Threat team from NY. New Heights went into Sunday 2-0 with a great chance to advance to the Championship game with one more win. Even though that game was against a 0-2 Mass Frenzy team, they were not going to just give New Heights the win and played a close hard game while losing by 8 points. New Heights advanced to the Championship Game against the also undefeated Wescon Fillies from CT.

Wescon Fillies also started the tournament off with a win over All Vermont Attack, but looked to have less problems against the sharp shooting Vermont squad winning by double digits (10 pts). The CT team then went on to beat Mass Frenzy in a close game by 6 points and the younger Triple Threat (NY) by 15+. The stage was set for the two undefeated 3-0 teams on the weekend. This was an exciting game....with the lead going back and forth through out the game between two very good teams. Great ball handling, perimeter shooting, offensive plays, and fundamentals were showcased during this 32 minute battle for the Best of the Fall Championship Crown. With under one minute left New Heights was down 2 points with the ball....New Heights scores a lay-up to tie the game....Wescon Fillies comes down and scores another lay up to go up 2 points....with 35 seconds left New Heights hits a 3 pointer to go up 1 point....with 16 seconds left Wescon Fillies scores a lay-up to go up 1 point...New Heights fired up a shot that fell short with 5 seconds left....Wescon Fillies takes their first Best of the Fall Championship.
